

Distance Learning Practitioners' Meeting

It has been a long spring semester, and it is time to come together to discuss your varied DL experiences!

Distance Learning Teachers and TAs share successes, discuss and troubleshoot common issues, as well as how we can grow the DL program in those new learning environments.

We will be meeting virtually via Webex on Thursday, June 11th from 12:30PM – 2:30PM; so register soon so we can send you the meeting details directly.

As always, we look to you for the specific topics of discussion for the June 2020 DL Practitioners' Meeting! Email DL@neric.org by June 9th with any suggested topic(s) you would like to discuss during this forum, including DL best practices content and any DL pain points you hope to troubleshoot with your peers.

Please click here to register: Web Registration. We are looking forward to connecting with you on the 11th! Don't miss this professional development opportunity!
