Classroom Management

“Keeping Your Head When Those About You are Losing Theirs”

Presenter..... Brenda McGuire

This series of workshops will identify the causes of negative behaviors and help participants learn to create structures in the classroom that work. You will learn about the “Classroom Dance of Ineffective Discipline” and ways to be more effective in setting firm limits through clear communication. You will explore “Natural and Logical Consequences” that will inspire cooperation and, in turn, create a more peaceful climate in the classroom. Whether you are a brand new teacher or a seasoned one, this series will give you the tools you need to be more effective in the classroom.
